

Overview

Tribal Tech is a trusted partner and program management provider. We have experienced program and project management professionals with robust credentials in methodology and metrics, data analysis, assessment, reporting, advising, planning, quality assurance and control. In practice, program management is often closely related to systems engineering, change management and business transformation.

Tribal Tech places a premium on excellent service and client satisfaction. We aim to achieve enhanced performance through proactive planning, solid communication and improvements. We embrace best practices and deploy these approaches and effective tools in every aspect of our work.

Experience

At the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services (HHS), Tribal Tech has established itself as a highly-reputable manager of grant portfolios; helping to service more than 100 Tribal grantees. We provide interagency support, to include grant application processing, panel review planning and full lifecycle program coordination. Our efforts at the Substance Abuse and Mental Health Services Administration (SAMHSA), help prevent suicidal behavior and substance abuse, promoting mental health among American Indian and Alaska Native young people.

At the U.S. Department of Energy (DOE), Tribal Tech has managed comprehensive conference planning and implementation, while incubating nascent policy initiatives via concept advising and implementation, management of logistics, and quality assurance and control.

At the U.S. Department of Education (ED), we implement program management best practices to enhance Indian education services and support the Office of Indian Education (OIE).
